Thirty-Nine Selected to GNAC Academic At-Large Team

SPOKANE – A total of 39 rowing, crew, women's golf, rifle and skiing student-athletes have been named to the 2010 Great Northwest Athletic Conference At-Large Academic all-star team.

Athletes eligible for the at-large team are those that compete in sports at GNAC institutions that compete as independents.

Nineteen of the athletes compete in rowing or crew including 10 at Western Washington and nine at Seattle Pacific. WWU's Miranda Steward has the best GPA in that group with a 3.96 average. Four golfers, led by WWU's Alexandria Taylor with a 3.74 GPA, also earned academic honors.

Completing the at-large team are five athletes who compete in rifle and 11 that compete in skiing at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. Among the rifle honorees is Ida Petersen who has a 3.66 GPA. The top GPAs among the skiers are Theresia Schnurr (3.98) and Alex Morris (3.95).
