

Stine, Tollefson Win CWU Invitational (Oct. 6, 2001)

ELLENSBURG - Former Central Washington University NAIA All-American Eric Tollefson and CWU's Stephanie Stine were the individual winners Saturday in the CWU Invitational cross country meet at Irene Rinehart Park.

Tollefson, competing unattached, won the men's four-mile race in a time of 20:14. Matt Schmitt of CWU finished second in a time of 21:58. Stine finished 30 seconds ahead of Jill Hall of Western Washington to win the women's 5,000 meter race in a time of 20:37.

CWU edged Western 26-29 in the women's team race. The Wildcats won the men's race by default as the Vikings had just three runners.

Both school rested several of their top runners in preparation for next Saturday's Great Northwest Athletic Conference championship meet at Anchorage, Alaska.
