2001

Week of Aug. 20-26: Goalkeeper Jeff Wallace, Humboldt State (6-1, 170, Jr., Vallejo, CA), starting in the place of the injured Colin Garon, had nine saves, including seven in the second half, as the Lumberjacks outlasted San Francisco State 2-1, despite playing one man short over the final 26 minutes.

Week of Aug. 27-Sept. 2: Joe Watson, Seattle (F, 5-8, 160, Jr., Auburn, WA - Auburn Riverside) and Cody Hagler, Western Washington (F, 6-2, 190, So., Canby, OR - Portland). . Watson recorded three goals and an assist as the Redhawks won three of four games with CCAA opponents, including a 2-1 overtime win over previously unbeaten Sonoma State Sunday. Hagler had a pair of game-winning goals as the Vikings defeated UC San Diego 1-0 and previously unbeaten Chico State 2-1 in overtime. He also scored twice in a 5-2 loss to Grand Canyon last Monday.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Ian Chursky, Seattle (Forward, 5-10, Jr., Federal Way, WA - Decatur & Tacoma CC) and Michael Schefter, Seattle Pacific (Midfielder, 6-0, So., Yakima, WA - West Valley). . Chursky scored twice, including the game-tying and game-winning goals, in a 3-1 non-conference win over Western Washington. . Schefter scored three goals in a pair of road wins over Cal Poly Pomona and UC San Diego.

Week of Sept. 10-16: Eduardo "Lalo" Serrano, Humboldt State (Forward, 6-1, Jr., Toluca, Mexico) scored three goals, including two in a 3-0 shutout of Dominican and the game-winning goal on a penalty kick in a 2-1 conquest of Fresno Pacific.

Week of Sept. 17-23: David Smith, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 6-3, Fr., Corvallis, OR), playing in his first games of the season after recovering from a pulled hamstring, scored the game-winning goals in victories over Sonoma State and UC Davis as the Falcons extended their winning streak to four games.

Week of Sept. 24-30: Grant Falco, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-9, Jr., Veradale, WA - University) and Brandon Sewell, Seattle (GK, 6-1, So., Federal Way, WA - Decatur). . Falco scored two goals and also had two assists as the Falcons extended their winning streak to six with a pair of victories. In SPU's 3-2 win against San Francisco State, he set up one goal and then beat two defenders and hit the game-winner from a difficult angle along the end line. He then notched another goal and an assist in the Falcons' 6-0 conference win over Northwest Nazarene. . Sewell had seven saves and turned away numerous crosses in the box to record his second shutout of the season in a 1-0 win over California State-Bakersfield. "Brandon made several-what I call-goal-saving saves, and when you only have a 1-0 lead, that is huge," said SU head coach Peter Fewing. "He read the game very well, came off his line extremely well and distributed the ball well."

Week of Oct. 1-7: Joe Watson, Seattle (Forward, 5-8, Jr., Auburn - Auburn Riverside) scored one goal and assisted on the other as the Redhawks defeated Seattle Pacific 2-1 for their first victory on SPU's home field in 23 years. Watson is currently tied for the GNAC scoring lead with Eduardo Serrano of Humboldt State. Both players are averaging 1.50 points per game. In 10 contests, Watson has scored five goals and also has five assists.

Week of Oct. 8-14: Trevor Stoneberg, Northwest Nazarene (Forward, 5-9, Sr., Meridian, ID) scored in overtime as the Crusaders ended a four-game losing streak with a 3-2 win over Northwest Nazarene Friday. He also scored two goals in a 5-1 win over Evergreen State on Saturday.

Week of Oct. 15-21: James Ward, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 6-0, Fr., Salem, OR) came out of the net to rally the Falcons to a win and a tie in a tournament at Incarnate Word, Tex. In the two contests, Ward scored three goals, including the game-winning goal in a 3-2 win over St. Edwards, and the tying goal in a 3-3 draw with Incarnate Word. He also had two assists.

Week of Oct. 22-28: Danny Ferris, Seattle (F, 6-1, Sr., Yakima - Eisenhower) scored two goals in a 4-1 win over Western Washington and added two more in a 6-0 victory over Humboldt State as the Redhawks clinched at least a tie for the GNAC title with a pair of victories. Ferris has scored at least one goal in four consecutive games.

Week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4: Eduardo "Lalo" Serrano, Humboldt State (Forward, 6-1, Jr., Toluca, Mexico) scored twice, including the game-winner in the 27th minute of overtime as the Lumberjacks rallied from a 2-0 deficit to defeat Seattle 3-2 in a non-conference game. A week earlier, the Redhawks had beaten HSU 6-0. Serrano currently leads the GNAC in goals (11) and points (25).

Week of Aug. 26-Sept. 1: Bobby McAlister, Seattle (Forward, 5-9, So., Federal Way - Decatur), a transfer from UW, was selected the Most Valuable Player in the Roadrunner Soccer Classic at Bakersfield. McAlister scored three goals in a 4-0 win over Cal State Bakersfield to earn the Redhawks a split in their two games. "He's a great finisher and knows how to find the back of the net," SU coach Peter Fewing said. "What I was most impressed with was his work ethic off the ball. He got back and defended well for us, taking one of their (Bakersfield's) best players out of the game, and always finding ways to make himself available."

Week of Sept. 2-8: Paul Nissley, Western Washington (MF, 6-0, So., Mount Vernon, WA) scored three goals to lead the Vikings to a pair of victories. Nissley had two goals in a 3-1 non-conference win at Humboldt State on Wednesday, then scored one of WWU's two goals in a 2-0 shutout of Chico State on Friday.

Week of Sept. 9-16: Kris Pope, Western Washington (Sweeper, 5-6, Fr., Everett, WA - Jackson) assisted on both of Western's goals in a 2-1 overtime win over Northwest Nazarene on Wednesday. Kris' brother Kory had an assist on the Vikings' only goal in a 1-0 shutout of Whitworth on Saturday. The game-winning goals were scored by Ian Weinberg and Joel Saulter, respectively.

Week of Sept. 16-22: Grant Falco, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-9, Sr., Veradale, WA - Central Valley) scored two goals to lead the Falcons to a 3-1 win Monday over Notre Dame de Namur. Falco has scored a goal or had an assist in five of SPU's seven games and is among five players tied for second place in the GNAC in points with 10 (4 goals, two assists).

Week of Sept. 23-29: Michael Brkich, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-9, So., Vancouver, BC) scored one goal and assisted on the first of four second-half goals in a 4-0 shutout of Chico State. He was also generally the catalyst for an attack, which kept Chico under pressure throughout the game.

Week of Sept. 30-Oct. 6: Jeremy Yerkes, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-10, So., Gresham, OR) and Matt Hulen, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-10, Sr., Woodinville, WA - Shoreline CC). .Yerkes scored the tying goal in Seattle Pacific's 2-1 win over previously unbeaten Cal State Dominguez Hills. He also forced strong saves on his other two shots and helped keep the Toros under constant pressure. The goal, his fourth of the season, came on a 20-yard direct free kick over a five-man wall and into the upper right corner. .Hulen scored two goals in a 4-1 win over Chico State and also earned an assist on Pat Doran's game-winning goal as the Redhawks rallied from a 2-0 deficit to defeat Montana State-Billings 5-2.

Week of Oct. 7-13: William Borg, Humboldt State (Forward, 5-11, 180, Sr., Greeley, CO) scored one of his team's two goals in a 2-0 win over Northwest Nazarene and earned an assist on the only goal in a 1-0 shutout of Montana State-Billings as the Lumberjacks snapped an eight-game losing streak with a pair of victories.

Week of Oct. 14-20: Paul Nissley, Western Washington (MF, 6-0, So., Mount Vernon, WA) and Nick Letts, Seattle Pacific (MF, 6-2, So., Dublin, CA). .Nissley earned an assist on David Hileman's winning goal in a 2-1 non-conference win over Seattle University and also had two goals, his seventh and league-leading eighth of the year, in a 5-0 shutout of Grand Canyon. .Letts, making his first start, had a cross to Jeremy Yerkes for an easy tap-in and then headed home the final goal in a 3-0 shutout of Grand Canyon.

Week of Oct. 21-27: Grant Falco, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-9, Sr., Veradale, WA - University) scored twice, including the winning goal in overtime, in a 3-2 road win at Cal Poly Pomona.

Week of Oct. 28-Nov. 3: Nick Letts, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-2, Fr., Dublin, CA - Redwood Christian) and Paul Nissley, Western Washington (MF, 6-0, So., Mount Vernon, WA)

both tied the GNAC record for most consecutive games with a point, extending their respective streaks to six. Letts scored two goals and had an assist in a 6-0 rout of Simon Fraser, then set up SPU's only goal in a 1-1 non-conference tie with Seattle University. Letts has had an assist in five consecutive games, one short of the GNAC record. Nissley, who leads the conference in goals (14) and points (32), also tied a GNAC record by scoring at least one goal in four consecutive games as he had two goals in a 7-0 shutout of Evergreen State. He also had a goal and an assist in a 2-1 win over Simon Fraser. Nissley has scored eight goals in his last four games and has 21 points (9 goals, 3 assists) during his six-game scoring streak.

Week of Nov. 4-10: Gus Zadra, Western Washington (MF, 5-11, Fr., Poulsbo, WA - North Kitsap) scored the game's only goal in the Vikings' 1-0 win at Seattle Pacific on Wednesday, then scored the first goal and assisted on Paul Nissley's game-winning goal as the Vikings clinched the GNAC title with a 2-1 home win against Seattle University on Saturday.

Week of Aug. 25-31: Bobby McAlister, Seattle (F, 5-9, 150, So., Federal Way, WA - Kennedy) and Derek Dixon, Humboldt State (M, 5-10, 175, Sr., Columbus, OH). .McAlister was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player in the fourth annual Seawolf Classic at Rohnert Park. He scored two goals in a 5-3 loss to San Francisco State and then earned an assist on the eventual winning goal in a 2-1 win over defending national champion Sonoma State. Dixon scored a goal in a 2-1 win over Montana State-Billings and had an assist in a 2-1 win over Cal State Stanislaus as the Lumberjacks opened their season with two victories.

Week of Sept. 1-7: James Ward, Seattle Pacific (GK, 6-0, Jr., Salem, OR - Sprague) had seven saves and was credited with one of the best overall performances of his career by Falcon coach Cliff McCrath in a 1-0 overtime road loss to Cal State Bakersfield.

Week of Sept. 8-14: Brandon Sewell, Seattle (GK, 6-1, 185, Sr., Federal Way, WA - Kennedy) had two saves, including one on a one-on-one situation as the Redhawks defeated defending conference champion Western Washington 2-0 Saturday in Bellingham. Sewell is unscored upon in two conference games this fall to extend his own conference record for career shutouts to 13.

Week of Sept. 15-21: Ryan Hopp, Western Washington (Forward, 5-10, Jr., Marysville, WA - Pilchuck & Edmonds CC) and Jeremy Yerkes, Seattle Pacific (Midfielder, 5-9, Jr., Gresham, OR). .Hopp scored a hat trick (the fifth in GNAC history including three by WWU players), converting on all three of his shot attempts, in a 4-1 conference win over Humboldt State. He also took a team-high six shots in a 2-0 win over Evergreen State as the Vikings earned their first two victories of the season. .Yerkes had a brilliant solo effort, beating two defenders on the dribble to score the tying goal with 10:25 left in regulation in a 2-2 tie with Simon Fraser. He was also the most dangerous man on the field and earned an assist on SPU's final goal in a 3-0 shutout of Montana State-Billings as the Falcons extended their unbeaten streak to three (two wins, one tie).

Week of Sept. 22-28: Matt Laughlin, Seattle Pacific (D, 6-3, Sr., Selah, WA - Massachusetts) and Justyn Scholze, Western Washington (D, 6-4, Sr., Federal Way - Decatur). .The two defenders sparked their respective teams to a pair of victories over defending NCAA Division II national champion Sonoma State and San Francisco State as each squad extended its unbeaten/winning streaks to five. .Laughlin repeatedly broke up forays using his speed and anticipation as the Falcons posted their third and fourth shutouts during their five-game unbeaten streak (4-0-1). Scholze had an assist on Western's first goal in a 2-0 win over San Francisco State and then made a critical defensive play to preserve the lead eight minutes later, clearing a shot by Gator midfielder Paul Carter off the goal line with an overhead kick. The Vikings, who have won five straight, also beat Sonoma 2-1.

Week of Sept. 29-Oct. 5: Ben Dragavon, Western Washington (GK, 6-1, 185, So., Monroe, WA) had two one-on-one saves in a 1-0 shutout of traditional NAIA power Simon Fraser. The shutout was his fourth of the season, tying SPU's James Ward for the conference lead. In two wins, Dragavon had eight saves, including five against the Clan, and allowed just one goal.

Week of Oct. 6-12: Alex Chursky, Seattle (Forward, 6-0, So., Federal Way, WA) scored a pair of goals, including the game-winner in overtime as the Redhawks beat Seattle Pacific 3-2 to open up a five-point lead in the conference race.

Week of Oct. 13-19: Ian Chursky, Seattle (Forward, 5-10, Sr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) scored four goals to lead the Redhawks to a pair of wins, including a 2-1 overtime victory over NCAA Division I Portland. He scored the game-winner against the Pilots as Seattle beat UP for the first time since 1982, snapping a 12-game losing streak in the series. He also had a hat-trick (the third of his career) in a 6-0 shutout of Cal State San Bernardino.

Week of Oct. 20-26: Nick McCluskey, Seattle (MF, 5-10, 175, So., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) and Jeremy Yerkes, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-9, Jr., Gresham, OR – Tacoma CC). .McCluskey scored a pair of game-winning goals as the Redhawks blanked Western Washington and Humboldt State to clinch their second GNAC title in three seasons. Yerkes came off the bench to score three goals in the final 31 minutes including the game-winner with 10:06 remaining as the Falcons beat Humboldt 3-2. It was SPU's first hat trick in three years.

Week of Oct. 27-Nov. 2: Kris Pope, Western Washington (Forward, 5-6, So., Everett, WA – Jackson) had two goals and two assists in the Vikings 7-1 home win against Humboldt State. Pope scored the first two goals – his first and second of the season – of the match, then added assists on the next two as Western built a 4-0 halftime lead.

Week of Nov. 3-9: James Ward, Seattle Pacific (Goalkeeper, 6-0, Jr., Salem, OR) allowed just one goal in a pair of victories. He was credited with 11 saves, including a penalty kick save versus Western Washington and two point-blank saves in a 2-1 win over UC Davis as the Falcons kept alive their NCAA record string of consecutive winning seasons, extending it to 33. Ward finished the season with a conference-leading 1.16 goals against average.

Week of Aug. 23-29: Bobby McAlister, Seattle (Forward, 5-9, Jr., Federal Way, WA – Kennedy) and Cody Hagler, Western Washington (Forward, 6-3, Jr., Canby, OR). .McAlister scored three goals – his second career hat-trick – as Seattle defeated Cal State Dominguez Hills 3-2 in overtime Friday at Championship Field. Hagler had three assists to tie the GNAC single-game record in a 3-1 home win Saturday over Cal Poly Pomona.

Week of Aug. 30-Sept. 6: James Ward, Seattle Pacific (GK, 6-0, Sr., Salem, OR - Sprague) and Dane Valadao, Humboldt State (D, 5-9, So., Arcata, CA). .Ward allowed just one goal leading the Falcons to a tie for the tournament title in the Seahawk Classic at Rohnert Park. In the two tournament contests, Ward had six saves and was named the tournament's Outstanding Goalkeeper. In three games, including a 1-0 home win over Cal Poly Pomona earlier in the week, Ward posted two shutouts and had a .929 save percentage. .Valadao earned MVP honors at the Don Mild Memorial Lumberjack Classic, leading the Lumberjacks to two victories. He scored goals in both games, including the game-winning goal in Monday's 1-0 overtime win over Cal State Stanislaus. "Dane is a very versatile player," HSU coach Andy Cumbo said. "He has such a tremendous work rate and plays through fatigue."

Week of Sept. 7-12: Bobby McAlister, Seattle (F, 5-9, Jr., Federal Way, WA – Kennedy) had a pair of game-winning goals as the Redhawks beat nationally second-ranked Chico State 3-2 and regionally fourth-ranked Sonoma State 1-0. McAlister leads the conference in scoring with 19 points (nine goals, one assist).

Week of Sept. 13-19: Jeremiah Doyle, Seattle (GK, 6-5, Sr., Vancouver, WA – Evergreen) and Nick Letts, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-2, Jr., Dublin, CA). .Doyle had a season-high nine saves in a 1-1 draw with nationally 15th-ranked UC San Diego, then recorded two saves and also did an outstanding job of coming off his line and snaring crosses in posting his fourth shutout of the season in a 3-0 win over Cal State San Bernardino. .Letts had a goal, an assist and set up a penalty kick as the Falcons extended their unbeaten streak to five with wins over Humboldt State (3-0) and Tampa (2-1). He got the equalizing goal in SPU's come-from-behind win against the Florida school, and had an assist on Brent Egbert's second goal and was tripped to set up Egbert's penalty kick against Humboldt.

Week of Sept. 20-26: Brent Egbert, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-9, Sr., Bellingham, WA – Sehome) extended his string of games with a point to seven, scoring three goals and also earning two assists in road wins over nationally 15th ranked Barry, Fla., and Nova Southeastern. Egbert scored SPU's first goal and assisted on the second in a 3-2 overtime win over Barry. He then had two goals and an assist against Nova., getting the game-winning goal on a penalty kick with 51 seconds left in regulation.

Week of Sept. 27-Oct. 3: Ryan Hopp, Western Washington (F, 5-10, Sr., Marysville, WA – Pilchuck & Edmonds CC) had four goals to lead the Vikings to three wins over Far West Region opponents. He scored twice in Monday's 3-1 win over Montana State – Billings, had one of the Vikings' five shots on goal in a 2-1 come-from-behind win at Cal State Monterey Bay on Wednesday and then scored twice in Friday's 3-0 shutout at Chico State.

Week of Oct. 4-10: Santa Maria Rivera, Seattle (Sweeper, 5-10, Jr., Yakima, WA – Ike & WVC) led the Redhawk defense to three shutout victories, all against regionally ranked teams. "Santa's made a great transition from midfield to defense and he's one of the main reasons we are getting the shutouts that we're getting," SU coach Peter Fewing said. "He's quick, he reads the game well and he plays smart out of the back. He stops things before they get started and he's definitely getting better each game."

Week of Oct. 11-17: Jonathan Eseman, Humboldt State (F, 5-11, Fr., Seattle, WA - Garfield) and Jeremiah Doyle, Seattle (GK, 6-5, Sr., Vancouver, WA – Evergreen). .Eseman scored five goals as the Lumberjacks won a pair of non-conference road games. Eseman had a hat trick and also added an assist in a 7-0 win at Cal Maritime. He then had both goals in a 2-1 come-from-behind win over Dominican. .Doyle stopped three shots as Seattle blanked Simon Fraser 1-0 for its eighth consecutive shutout, equaling the sixth longest shutout streak in NCAA Division II history. Doyle extended his own string of consecutive minutes without allowing a goal to 762 minutes, 53 seconds, which is the ninth longest streak in Division II history.

Week of Oct. 18-24: Alex Chursky, Seattle (F, 6-0, Jr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) scored the game-winning goal in a 2-0 win over Grand Canyon. It was the 10th consecutive game in which Chursky had either scored a goal or had an assist, equaling the GNAC record set by current teammate Pat Doran two years ago.

Week of Oct. 25-31: Pat Doran, Seattle (F, 5-11, Sr., Bellingham, WA - Sehome) assisted on both of the Redhawks goals in a 2-1 win over Seattle Pacific as the Redhawks clinched their third GNAC title in the four-year history of the conference. Doran has nine assists this season, one short of the GNAC single season mark of 10 set by Grant Falco of Seattle Pacific three years ago. Doran's second assist set up Cameron Weaver's game-winning goal in the 98th minute.

Week of Nov. 1-7: Drew Macha, Seattle Pacific (D, 6-1, Fr., Eugene, OR – Marist) and Adam Jensen, Seattle (F, 5-11, So., Missoula, MT – Sentinel). .Macha and Jensen led their respective teams to 1-0 shutouts of Western Washington. Macha played solid, aggressive defense, won numerous head balls and steadied a back line which was without starter David Smith in Wednesday's victory. Jensen got the game-winning goal in Saturday's game as the Redhawks finished off their first unbeaten regular-season in school history.

Week of Aug. 22-28: Andy Willis, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-0, Jr., Gig Harbor) scored two goals, including the game-winner versus Chico State and one of the Falcons' two goals in a 2-2 tie with Fresno Pacific. Willis now has 12 career goals.

Week of Aug. 29-Sept. 4: Kellen Rosten, Seattle Pacific (GK, 6-0, So., Colorado Springs, CO) had a total of 11 saves without allowing a goal while playing 161 minutes in shutout wins over San Francisco State and Sonoma State. He had four point-blank stops versus Sonoma State and also earned an assist on the Falcons' clinching goal. He currently ranks 10th nationally in save percentage (.913) and 17th in goals against average (0.50) leading the Falcons to a 4-0-1 record.

Week of Sept. 5-11: Ben Dragavon, Western Washington (GK, 6-1, Sr., Monroe, WA) had a total of 28 saves in three games, including 15 in a 1-0 overtime shutout win against Chico State Saturday as he posted his 18th career shutout. The 15 saves is the third highest total in GNAC history and the highest total in a shutout. The previous best total in league history in a shutout was eight. The win snapped a six-game losing streak for WWU. "Ben Dragavon was a man among boys," WWU coach Travis Connell said. "When you're on a losing streak, you try to inspire people to have special performances that bring out the best in their teammates, and Ben did that. He wouldn't let us lose."

Week of Sept. 12-18: Steve Spencer, Seattle Pacific (F-M, 5-9, Jr., Scottsdale, AZ – Chaparral & Paradise Valley) assisted on three of the Falcons' six goals as they went 2-0-1 to complete a five-game road trip. Spencer set-up Andy Willis for a pair of goals in a 2-0 win at Cal State Bakersfield and his corner kick led to the tying goal in a 3-2 comeback win at Metro State. He also had one shot hit the post in the latter game.

Week of Sept. 19-25: Ross Vaillancourt, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-10, Sr., Bedford, NH – Manchester West) and Brendan Bourdage, Humboldt State (GK, 6-1, Sr., Napa, CA – Santa Clara). .Vaillancourt equaled a GNAC single-game record with three assists in SPU's 3-0 shutout of Grand Canyon and also effectively controlled possession in that game and its scoreless draw with Humboldt State. .Bourdage had four saves and allowed just one goal as the Lumberjacks defeated Western Washington 2-1, earning their first conference victory in three years, and also battled to the tie with SPU. "Brendan's experience and maturity helps our organization,” HSU coach Andy Cumbo said. “He has the ability to make sure that the shot doesn't happen because he communicates so well.”

Week of Sept. 26-Oct. 2: Matt Kemper, Seattle Pacific (Defender, 6-1, So., Colorado Springs, CO) anchored the Falcons' back line which, despite playing without two starters, held both WWU and Simon Fraser scoreless in 3-0 and 2-0 wins, extending their shutout streak to four games. Kemper cut off several attacks with interceptions and tackled strong. He also fired one shot at SFU that required a tough save by the Clan keeper.

Week of Oct. 3-9: Cameron Weaver, Seattle University (F, 6-4, Sr., Kent, WA – Skagit Valley) scored five goals and launched a total of 22 shots, including 14 “on-goal” as the Redhawks exploded for 13 goals in Far West Region wins over Cal Poly Pomona (5-2), Seattle Pacific (2-1) and Humboldt State (6-1). He had SU's first goal in wins over Cal Poly Pomona and SPU and then produced a hat trick in Sunday's home victory against Humboldt State. Weaver is tied for the GNAC lead in points with 18, ranks second in goals with seven and is the leader in assists with four.

Week of Oct. 10-16: Nick McCluskey, Seattle University (Midfielder, 5-10, Sr., Federal Way – Decatur) scored three goals, including two in a 4-0 shutout of Western Washington as the Redhawks clinched their third straight GNAC title and their fourth in five years. Seattle now has an all-time conference record of 24-1 in the five-year history of the conference and has won 17 straight conference games, the seventh longest streak in NCAA Division II history.

Week of Oct. 17-23: Pat Doran, Seattle (M, 6-0, Sr., Bellingham, WA – Sehome) scored the game-winning goal and also had an assist as the Redhawks overcame the absence of two of its top players to defeat Cal State San Bernardino 2-0. Doran now ranks third in school history and is the GNAC career leader in assists with 24. He also ranks fifth in career scoring in GNAC history with 58 points.

Week of Oct. 24-30: Michael Morris, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Jr., Bothell, WA - Blanchet) assisted on one goal, help create another and hit the post over the span of two road wins. He worked an exchange with Jeff Hallenbeck for the first goal at Grand Canyon in a 2-1 victory. The against Monterey Bay he set Jeremy Bonner free with a thru ball as Bonner got the assist on a goal by James Coogan in a 1-0 victory. Earlier he hit the upright with a shot.

Week of Oct. 31-Nov. 6: Kellen Rosten, Seattle Pacific (GK, 6-0, So., Colo. Springs, Co) posted his ninth and 10 th shutouts of the season and made 12 saves, including a critical penalty kick and a diving parry of a free kick in a 1-0 win over Seattle University. Rosten leads the GNAC in shutouts (10), goals against average (0.56) and save percentage (.891). All three marks are just slightly off the GNAC single-season records of 13, 0.47 and .897 set last year by SU's Jeremiah Doyle.

Week of Aug. 20-27: John Fishbaugher, Seattle University (M, 5-10, 178, Jr., Redmond, WA) scored one goal and also had two assists as the Redhawks defeated Chico State 4-3 and Sonoma State 3-0. He scored the first goal just four minutes into the first half against Chico State bending a free kick into the net. He also controlled the Seattle midfield as the Redhawks scored three more goals in the first half. Against Sonoma State, his skills on the set plays again led to goals, as he set up both Jason Cascio and Adam Jensen to give Seattle a 2-0 lead. Fishbaugher again controlled the midfield, more times than not putting the ball in the right place for the Redhawks to keep possession and move up the field.

Week of Aug. 28-Sept. 3: Matt Kemper, Seattle Pacific (D-M, 6-1, Jr., Colorado Springs, CO) was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player in the Seawolf Classic at Rohnert Park, Calif. He organized the Falcon defense and launched attacks out of the back as SPU blanked Cal State L.A. 2-0 and 17th-ranked Sonoma State 3-0 to win the tournament title. He also came forward to launch four shots (two of them on goal) in three contests, including a 2-0 loss Tuesday to nationally fifth-ranked Cal State Dominguez Hills.

Week of Sept. 4-10 and Oct. 23-29: Jason Cascio, Seattle University (F, 5-10, Jr., Gilbert, AZ – Hamilton) scored the game-winning goal from 18 yards out in the second half as the Redhawks snapped a two-match losing streak with a 3-2 win over UC San Diego to win the award for the Week of Sept. 4-10. . . . He scored three goals to lead the Redhawks to a pair of 3-1 victories for the Week of Oct. 23-29, earning them a NCAA post-season berth. Cascio finished the regular-season with a league-best 16 goals, equaling the second highest single-season total in GNAC history, and 33 points. He also led the conference with six game-winning goals.

Week of Sept. 11-17: Jason Cascio, Seattle (F, 5-10, Jr., Gilbert, AZ – Hamilton) and Andy Willis, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-0, Sr., Gig Harbor, WA). . . Cascio extended his goal-scoring streak to five games to equal the GNAC record set last season by the Redhawks' Cameron Weaver. He scored two goals, including the game-winner, in a 4-1 win over Hawaii Pacific, and also had the game-winning goals, his fourth and fifth of the season, in wins over Chaminade (8-0) and Grand Canyon (2-1). He flicked the ball into the net with 5:49 remaining in the Redhawks' win over the Antelopes. . . Willis scored a pair of goals to move into a tie for eighth place in GNAC career scoring with 51 points as the Falcons extended their win streak to three with road victories at Cal State Monterey Bay (3-1) and Western Washington (4-1).

Week of Sept. 18-24, Oct. 2-8 and Oct. 9-15: Colin Rigby, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-2, Sr., Mercer Island, WA – Denver) scored the game-winning goal in overtime in the Falcons' historic 500th victory to win the Sept. 18-24 award. He was also SPU's most effective attacker throughout the contest, serving as target man and shooting five times, including one that skipped off the crossbar. He scored the game-winning goal on a 30-yard blast as the Falcons extended their win streak to seven with a 4-0 win at UC-Colorado Springs to win the award for the Week of Oct. 2-8. He scored just 38 seconds into the contest and then later earned an assist on Andy Willis' game-winning goal in Seattle Pacific's 2-1 win over Seattle before a crowd of 775 and also scored a goal in SPU's 3-2 overtime loss to Grand Canyon to win the award for the Week of Oct. 9-15.

Week of Sept. 25-Oct. 1 and Oct. 16-22: James Coggan, Seattle Pacific (Jr., San Jose, CA – Valley Christian). . In the week of Sept. 25-Sept.1, Coggan came off the bench to score two second-half goals as the Falcons extended their win streak to six with a 2-0 shutout of Regis. He also had three shots in a 2-1 overtime win over Notre Dame de Namur. During the week of Oct. 16-22, he scored what proved to be the game-winning goal on a 22-yard free kick in a 3-1 win over Western Washington. He had five shots in SPU's two games and was a constant threat, both on free kicks (curling one just over the bar) and in run of play.

Week of Oct. 30-Nov. 5: Hans Esterhuizen, Seattle (D, 6-1, Sr., Pasco, WA) scored two of his team's five goals and was selected the tournament's Outstanding Defensive Player as the Redhawks won the Far West Regional title, defeating top-seeded Cal State Dominguez Hills 2-1 in overtime and Cal State L.A. 4-3 in a shootout after playing to a 3-3 double overtime draw.

Week of Aug. 20-26: Gibson Bardsley, Western Washington (F, 5-11, Fr., Fall City, WA – Mt. Si) scored three goals in his collegiate debut leading the Vikings to a 4-0 win over Hawaii Hilo.

Week of Aug. 27-Sept. 2: Jeff Hallenbeck, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Sr., Redmond, WA – Inglemoor) and Daniel Palermo, Saint Martin's (D, 5-7, Jr., Seattle, WA – Mt. Rainier). . Hallenbeck forced three saves and also assisted on James Coggan's winning goal as the Falcons blanked San Francisco State 1-0 to stay unbeaten in three contests. Palermo was credited with an assist on the Saints' first goal in a 2-1 win over Hawaii Hilo and scored the lone goal in a 1-0 win over Notre Dame de Namur as SMU earned its first two wins in the program's history.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Kellen Rosten, Seattle Pacific (GK, 6-0, Sr., Colorado Springs, CO - Doherty) and Cameron Mertens, Seattle (M, 5-8, Jr., Kennewick, WA - Southridge). . Rosten had a career-high 10 saves in a 2-1 overtime win over Sonoma State, including a game-saving diving stop in the final seconds of the first overtime on a volley from close range. He then recorded his 19 th career shutout, fourth on SPU's all-time list and second in GNAC history, in a 1-0 shutout of Saint Martin's. He made one save in that contest as the Falcons improved to 4-0-1. . Mertens scored the only goals in Seattle's 1-0 wins over nationally sixth-ranked Cal State L.A. and Notre Dame de Namur.

Week of Sept. 10-16 and Oct. 21-28: Sam Charles, Montana State Billings (F, So., Chiswell, England - Budmouth Tech). . During the Week of Sept. 10-16, Charles scored four of the Yellowjackets five goals in conference home wins against Western Washington (2-1), Seattle (1-0) and Saint Martin's (2-0). He had the game-winning goals against the Redhawks and Saints – his third and fourth of the year – and also scored the go-ahead goal against the Vikings. . . During the Week of Oct. 21-28, he became just the second player in GNAC history to produce 40 points in a single season as he had a goal and an assist in a 2-0 home win over Seattle Pacific. Charles' 41-point total (19 goals, 3 assists) trails only Bobby McAllister's 49-point production (22 goals, 5 assists) in 2004 when he led Seattle University to the NCAA Division II national title.

Week of Sept. 17-23: Wyatt Seddon-Johnstone, Seattle Pacific (M, 6-2, Jr., Burnaby, BC – Burnaby Central & Hartwick) led the Falcons to a pair of 1-1 draws as he energized the midfield during the second half as the Falcons came behind against Montana State Billings. He then had another strong game, winning balls and restarting the attack, in a defensive center role against Grand Canyon.

Week of Sept. 24-30, Oct. 15-21 and Oct. 29-Nov. 4: Jason Cascio, Seattle University (F, 5-11, Sr., Gilbert, AZ - Hamilton) scored all three of the Redhawk goals in wins over Montana State Billings (1-0) and UC San Diego (2-0) during Week of Sept. 24-30. The goal against the Yellowjackets came in overtime. During the Week of Oct. 15-21, he earned his first career hat trick scoring three goals in a 8-1 win against Saint Martin's as the Redhawks extended their win streak to eight games. During the week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4, he scored all three of the Redhawk goals in a 2-1 win over Incarnate Word and a 1-1 draw with Seattle Pacific.

Week of Oct. 1-7: Jeff Hallenbeck, Seattle Pacific (M-F, 5-8, Sr., Redmond, WA - Inglemoor) and Michael Lockwood, Western Washington (GK, 6-2, Sr., Canby, OR – Skagit Valley). . Hallenbeck scored four goals, including a hat trick against Colorado – Colorado Springs, and also had two assists in a pair of wins. Among his goals against UCCS was an 18-yard free kick into the upper left corner, which would have beaten any defense. He also tormented the Mary and UCCS defenses with his tight control and passing in tight situations in a pair of victories. . Lockwood posted three shutouts, making 11 saves, including eight in a 1-0 road win at Cal State Stanislaus, as he extended his scoreless streak to 294:56. “He was phenomenal (against CSU Stanislaus) with eight saves, two from point-blank range right at the end to preserve the win and the shutout,” WWU coach Travis Connell said.

Week of Oct. 8-14: Dustin Allbery, Seattle (M, 5-10, 175, Sr., Spokane, WA – SFCC) had a pair of assists in the Redhawks' 2-1 win over Seattle Pacific. He leads the GNAC in assists this fall with seven and now ranks ninth in GNAC history with 15 career assists.

Week of Oct. 15-21: Jason Cascio, Seattle University (F, 5-11, Sr., Gilbert, AZ – Hamilton) earned his first career hat trick scoring three goals in a 8-1 win against Saint Martin's as the Redhawks extended their win streak to eight games. Cascio now has 10 goals this season and 28 in his career.

Week of Oct. 22-28: Sam Charles, Montana State Billings (F, So., Chiswell, England) became just the second player in GNAC history to produce 40 points in a single season as he had a goal and an assist in a 2-0 home win over Seattle Pacific. Charles' 41-point total (19 goals, 3 assists) trails only Bobby McAllister's 49-point production (22 goals, 5 assists) in 2004 when he led Seattle University to the NCAA Division II national title. The 2-0 win also clinched the Yellowjackets second-place in the GNAC and put them into a strong position to earn a NCAA playoff berth.

Week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4: Jason Cascio, Seattle University (F, 5-11, 180, Sr., Gilbert, AZ - Hamilton) scored all three of the Redhawk goals in a 2-1 win over Incarnate Word and a 1-1 draw with Seattle Pacific.

Week of Aug. 25-31: Jose Oregon, Northwest Nazarene (M, 5-10, 145, Fr., Nampa, ID - Skyview) scored two goals, including the game-winner on a header in the opening minute of overtime, as the Crusaders opened their season – their first since suspending the sport following the 2002 season - with a 4-3 overtime win over the College of Idaho.

Week of Sept. 1-7: Alex Mangeac, Northwest Nazarene (M, 5-8, Fr., Nampa, ID - Skyview) and Sam Charles, Montana State Billings (F, 6-4, 200, Jr., Chiswell, England – Budmouth Tech). .Mangeac had three goals and an assist in leading the unbeaten Crusaders to two wins and a draw. He had the game-winning goal in a 5-0 shutout of Cascade and earned an assist on the game-winning goal in a 2-1 win over George Fox. . Charles scored two goals and also had an assist as the Yellowjackets split two games with nationally ranked teams. He scored MSUB's lone goal in a 2-1 loss to No. 7 Metro State and had the game-winning goal and an assist in a 3-0 shutout of No. 24 Mesa State. .Mangeac currently leads the GNAC in points with 10 (4 goals, 2 assists), while Charles, with three goals and two assists, is the leader in points per game (2.67). Charles is now MSUB's all-time leader in goals (29) and points (65).

Week of Sept. 8-14: Sam Charles, MSU Billings (F, 6-4, Jr., Chiswell, England - Budmouth Tech) scored four goals leading the Yellowjackets to two wins in three contests. He had a hat trick in a 3-1 win Monday against Mary. It was his third career hat-trick tying the GNAC record. On Sunday, Charles, who has had 10 game-winning goals during the past two seasons including three this year, scored the game's only goal at 88:49 lifting the Yellowjackets to a 1-0 victory over Great Falls.

Week of Sept. 15-21: Alexander Engemann, Northwest Nazarene (GK, 6-3, Fr., Fort Collins, CO - Poudre) had 11 saves in leading the unbeaten Crusaders to wins at Great Falls (3-0) and Montana State Billings (2-1). In Thursday's game against UGF, Engemann made two fantastic saves early in the second half to help protect a 1-0 lead.

Week of Sept. 22-28: Ben Lovelace, Seattle Pacific (GK, 5-10, Sr., Cupertino, CA) stopped all 11 shots he faced in recording shutouts against Saint Martin's (1-0) and Northwest Nazarene (2-0) as the Falcons opened their conference season with a pair of victories. Lovelace recorded shutouts even though his team was outshot 24-22 and also gave up five more corner kicks (13-8).

Week of Sept. 29-Oct. 5: Samir Vejo, Western Washington (F, 5-10, Sr., Trebinje, Bosnia – Beaverton, Ore.) scored seven goals as the Vikings split two games in Colorado, defeating Colorado Christian 10-0 after losing 5-4 to Regis. Vejo set GNAC records with six goals and 12 points against CCU, breaking the old records of four and eight by Bobby McAlister of Seattle University against Cal State Bakersfield on Sept. 1, 2002. Two of his goals against Colorado Christian were on penalty kicks.

Week of Oct. 6-12: Ruben Orozco, Saint Martin's (M, 5-11, Jr., Des Moines, WA) led the Saints to their first-ever conference victory as they upset league-leader Seattle Pacific 3-1 Friday at Interbay Stadium. Orozco scored SMU's first goal on a free kick from 25 yards. "His free kick was about a good a ball that anyone could hope for," SMU coach Rob Walker said. "That first goal gave us a nice boost in the first half and definitely helped with our confidence. His distribution is first class and in the win against SPU his work rate in defense was critical to our success."

Week of Oct. 13-19: Nick Saletto, Western Washington (D, 6-3, Jr., Bellingham, WA – Squalicum) sparked a defensive unit that allowed just one goal and surrendered just 16 shots in wins over Saint Martin's (3-1) and Montana State Billings (1-0) as the Vikings took over first-place in the GNAC race. "Nick was dominant in the air in both of our victories," WWU coach Travis Connell said.

Week of Oct. 20-26: Xan Nixon, Saint Martin's (M, 6-0, Fr., Seattle, WA – Roosevelt) scored four goals to lead the Saints to a 5-0 shutout of Northwest Nazarene. Nixon joined Bobby McAlister of Seattle University (2002 vs. Cal State Bakersfield) and Samir Vejo of Western Washington (this year against Colorado Christian and Northwest Nazarene) as the only players in GNAC history to score four or more goals in a game.

Week of Oct. 27-Nov. 2: Matt Pele, Western Washington (M, 6-4, Sr., Kennewick, WA – Kamiakin) earned an assist on the Vikings' first goal in a 2-1 road win at Montana State Billings as WWU opened up a three-point lead in the conference race. Pele beat two players off the dribble from the corner and got the ball to the far post where Oscar Jimenez headed it to the near post to Tyler Bjork. Bjork then found the net from five yards away. " Matt had his best game as a Viking," WWU coach Travis Connell said about the four-year veteran. "He was all over the place, running tirelessly."

Week of Nov. 3-9: Samir Vejo, Western Washington (F, 5-10, Sr., Trebinje, Bosnia – Beaverton, OR) scored four goals, including one game-winner, and also had and assist in conference wins over Saint Martin's (6-0) and Seattle Pacific (3-0). Vejo, who also had an assist in a 1-1 tie Monday with West Region playoff qualifier Cal State L.A., finished second in the conference in points (39), goals (18) and game-winning goals (4).

Week of Aug. 24-30, Sept. 14-20 and Oct. 19-25: Sam Charles, Montana State Billings (F, 6-4, Sr., Chiswell, England) scored three goals and also had two assists to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair of lopsided shutout victories during the Week of Aug. 24-30. During the Week of Sept. 14-20, Charles scored three goals and also had an assist as the Yellowjackets tied Seattle Pacific 1-1 and defeated Jamestown 3-1. In the latter two games, Charles set GNAC records for most consecutive games with a goal (9) and most consecutive games with a point (11). Charles set the previous record of 8 for games with a goal in 2007. The old record for most consecutive games with a point of 10 was set by Pat Doran of Seattle University in 2002 and equaled by the Redhawks' Alex Chursky in 2004. The goal streak ended at nine, but he eventually extended his streak for games with a point to 15 before it was snapped. In the Week of Oct. 18-25, Charles scored five goals and had an assist in leading the Yellowjackets to their ninth and 10th victories of the season. He had two goals and an assist in a 3-0 win at Northwest Nazarene and three goals in a 4-0 victory against Rocky Mountain. The hat-trick was his first of the year and fourth of his career, setting a GNAC record.

Week of Aug. 31-Sept. 6: Matt Mitchell, MSU Billings (GK, 5-11, 165, Jr., Thornton, CO - Northglenn) had 17 saves as the Yellowjackets split two road games, losing in overtime to sixth-ranked Cal State L.A. 2-1 and defeating previously unbeaten Cal Poly Pomona 2-0. Mitchell had 11 saves against Pomona, becoming just the second goalkeeper in GNAC history to record 10 or more saves during a shutout joining Ben Dragavon of Western Washington who had 15 saves in a 1-0 overtime win over Chico State on Sept. 10, 2005.

Week of Sept. 7-13 and Oct. 12-18: Tyler Schultz, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-11, 170, So., Scottsdale, AZ – Pinacle) had a pair of goals and an assist as the Falcons stayed unbeaten with wins over Cal State Monterey Bay (3-1) and nationally 20th-ranked Metro State 4-1 during the Week of Sept. 7-13. He had a goal and assist in the latter game as SPU gained a little revenge for a 4-1 loss to the same team a year ago. During the Week of Oct. 12-18, Schultz scored four goals as the Falcons won two of three games, including a 1-0 win at nationally 17th ranked Grand Canyon and a 4-1 home win against Montana State Billings. Schultz, who netted the game-winner against Grand Canyon, has seven goals and an assist and is tied for sixth in the GNAC in scoring, averaging 1.00 points per contest. He scored both of SPU's goals in its 3-2 road loss at Saint Martin's and had one of their four goals against MSUB.

Week of Sept. 21-27: Chris Andre, Montana State Billings (F, 6-0, Jr., Billings, MT) led the Yellowjackets to a pair of one-goal road victories, including a 2-1 overtime win at Western Washington Thursday. Andre scored a goal in the 106th minute against WWU as MSUB earned its first-ever victory at Bellingham. He then helped lead the 'Jackets to a 1-0 win at Saint Martin's as MSUB grabbed the early lead in the GNAC race.

Week of Sept. 28-Oct. 4 and Oct. 26-Nov. 1: Zac Lubin, Saint Martin's (GK, 6-5, Jr., Bozeman, MT) had eight saves – one short of his career high - and did not allow a goal over the final 71:25 allowing the Saints to rally from a 2-0 deficit to beat Seattle Pacific 3-2 on Oct. 1. . .He earned his second Player-of-the-Week award, making 13 saves and allowing just two goals in a pair of 2-1 wins as the Saints clinched the GNAC title, its first team championship in any sport in the nine-year history of the conference. Lubin ranks second in the conference in save percentage (.724) and saves (3.71). In conference games he is the leader in goals against average (1.22) and save percentage (.775) and ranks second in saves (4.43).

Week of Oct. 5-11: Xan Nixon, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, So., Seattle, WA – Roosevelt) had an assist on the Saints' game-winning goal in a 2-1 win over Western Washington as SMU grabbed the GNAC lead at the halfway point of the conference season. He also scored SMU's only goal and had all four of its shots on goal in a 3-1 loss to Simon Fraser. Nixon leads the GNAC in shots with 51, ranks second in total points with 18 and ranks third in points per game, averaging 1.29 per contest. "Xan has had a great last five games with some great goals and timely passing," SMU coach Rob Walker said. "He's scored against some great opposition in NNU, SPU and his assist on Connor Biggs' go-ahead goal against Western Washington last week really made our day as the Vikings were all over us."

Week of Nov. 2-8: Kellan Brown, Western Washington (M, 5-7, 140, So., Tacoma, WA - Bellarmine Prep) led the Vikings to a tie and a win, scoring a goal against the University of Mary and earning an assist against Saint Martin's. Brown finished the season as the GNAC's No. 2 point producer (25) and goal scorer (10). "Kellan has continuously found ways to breakdown defenses all season," WWU coach Travis Connell said.

Week of Aug. 30-Sept. 5: Thomas Sheets, MSU Billings (5-9, So., Everett, WA – Edmonds CC) led the Yellowjackets to a win and a tie in a pair of West Region games in Phoenix. He had one of MSUB's two goals, scoring in the second half in Saturday's 1-1 draw with Grand Canyon, then also contributed to a 1-0 victory against Dixie State.

Week of Sept. 6-12: Christian Warman, Western Washington (GK, 5-11, Sr., Sedro-Woolley, WA) and Salvador Sanchez, Northwest Nazarene (M, 6-0, So., Ontario, OR). . . Warman had 10 saves as the Vikings upset 20th ranked Metro State 2-1 Sunday in Denver. "He was spectacular," WWU coach Travis Connell said. "They put a ton of pressure on us in the second half and really wore us down. They did surge through a few times, but every time Christian was up to it and turned them away." . . . Sanchez scored a pair of goals from outside the 18 in Northwest Nazarene's 3-2 win Friday over the College of Idaho. Earlier in the week, his blast from 25 yards gave the Crusaders a 1-0 victory over Hawaii Pacific. Sanchez is currently one of three players tied in the GNAC for most goals scored with three.

Week of Sept. 13-19: Chris Andre, MSU Billings (F, 6-0, Sr., Billings, MT) had three goals and an assist as the Yellowjackets won two of three region-counting games. He had one goal in a 4-2 win over Adams State and both goals in a 2-0 shutout of University of Mary, Andre currently ranks second in the conference in scoring with nine points and in goals with four.

Week of Sept. 20-26: Helge Neumann, Simon Fraser (D, 6-2, So., Oslo, Norway) had assists on game-winning goals by Max Baessato and Michael Winters as the Clan stayed perfect in seven contests with wins against MSU Billings and Northwest Nazarene. "Helge has led our team to a very good start this season," SFU coach Alan Koch said. "He has helped natural freshmen Derrick Bassi settle in nicely next to him. Our back four are continually getting better and Helge is the glue that holds them together. He has also done well to get forward and assist on a few goals this week. He is still a young player and the sky is the limit for him."

Week of Sept. 27-Oct. 3: Andy Wolverton, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-7, Sr., Portland, OR – Jesuit) had three goals to lead the Falcons to a 4-2 win over Northwest Nazarene and also played a key role in SPU's 2-0 shutout of Montana State Billings, its first-ever win in the Montana city as the Falcons moved into first-place in the conference with 10 points. The hat trick, which included two goals on penalty kicks, was the first one for Wolverton, who now has eight goals. Tied 2-2, Wolverton chipped the ball over the goalkeeper's head from 18 yards out. He then added an insurance goal at 87:40 on his second penalty kick. Wolverton is one of six players in the conference tied for third in goals scored with four.

Week of Oct. 4-10: Joseph Martin, Simon Fraser (MF, 5-8, Fr., Surrey, BC – North Delta) and Gibson Bardsley, Western Washington (F, 5-11, Sr., Fall City, WA – Mt. Si). . . Martin came off the bench to score overtime goals in wins at Seattle Pacific (93:16) and Saint Martin's (96:21) as the NAIA No. 1 ranked Clan extended their win streak to 10 games. The goals were the first two of his collegiate career. In addition to the game-winners, he took just one other shot in the two contests. . . Bardsley had an 11-point week, scoring five goals and also earning an assist in wins over Saint Martin's (4-3) and Hawaii Pacific (5-2). Bardsley leads the GNAC in goals (11) and points (24).

Week of Oct. 11-17: Tyler Schultz, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-11, Jr., Scottsdale, AZ – Pinnacle) had three goals, including two in Seattle Pacific's 3-0 shutout of regionally top-ranked Grand Canyon. Schultz currently ranks second in the GNAC in goals (7) and total points (16).

Week of Oct. 18-24: Elliot Morton, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-4, Jr., Tacoma, WA – Bellarmine) scored in overtime to earn Seattle Pacific a 2-1 home win against MSU Billings Saturday. With the ball rolling toward the top of the Yellowjackets penalty area, Morton gained control, lost it momentarily under defensive pressure, but quickly regained it and broke through two defenders. That set him up for a one-on-one shot that eluded the reach of goalkeeper Matt Mitchell. Morton, who started the season as a defender, has four goals and three assists since moving to forward. "Elliott has really helped turn our season around by moving to forward," SPU coach Mark Collings said. "His strength and ability to win balls in the air continues to create a lot of goal scoring opportunities for us. Although he doesn't always get the assist or the goal, he has been a catalyst in our attack."

Week of Oct. 25-31: Gibson Bardsley, Western Washington (F, 5-11, Sr., Fall City, WA – Mount Si) scored two goals and also had four assists in leading the Vikings to wins over Montana State Billings and Northwest Nazarene. He scored WWU's first goal and then earned an assist on Andrew Weishaar's game-winner in a 2-1 win at Montana State Billings Thursday. He also had a goal and added a GNAC-record tying three assists in a 7-0 rout of Northwest Nazarene on Saturday. Bardsley currently leads the conference in points with 39 and goals with 16 and is one off the lead in assists with seven. His point total is 17 more than any one else in the conference and is goal total is seven ahead of the runner-up in that category.

Week of Nov. 1-7: Gibson Bardsley, Western Washington (F, 5-11, Sr., Fall City, WA – Mount Si) scored in each game as the Vikings finished their season with 2-0 wins over Saint Martin's and Seattle Pacific. The two goals – the 40th and 41st of his career - pulled Bardsley even with Peter LaBarge (1989-90) for most goals in WWU history. It also gave him 100 career points enabling him to join Sam Charles of Montana State Billings (140 points) as the only players in conference history to reach triple digits. Bardsley scored a goal in WWU's final six games and in eight of its last nine contests. He had 30 points (12 goals, 6 assists) as the Vikings finished with seven wins in the nine games. "He has literally been unstoppable the second half of the season," WWU coach Travis Connell said.

Week of Aug. 29-Sept. 4: Alex Mangeac, Northwest Nazarene (M, 5-8, 155, Sr., Nampa, ID – Skyview), who led the GNAC in assists last season with 10, scored a pair of goals, including one to snap a 2-2 tie as the Crusaders defeated Academy of Art 4-2 in their season opener. The two goals were Mangeac's 24th and 25th of his career moving him into eighth place on the GNAC all-time career list in points with 68.

Week of Sept. 5-11: Anthony DiNicolo, Simon Fraser (D, 5-10, Sr., Maple Ridge, BC – Archbishop Carney) and Garion Holian, Montana State Billings (F, 5-11, 150, Sr., Missoula, MT – Hellgate). . DiNicolo led the Clan defense that keyed SFU's 1-0 win against nationally ninth-ranked Grand Canyon. "Anthony was fantastic for us at the back," SFU coach Alan Koch said. "He helped settle our back four in the final thirty minutes against Grand Canyon and helped preserve a big victory. He has grown into a silent leader and has started off his senior year full of confidence." . Holian led MSUB to two wins scoring a school-record four goals in a 4-2 win over Colorado Christian and also earning an assist in a 2-1 victory over the University of Mary. Holian's goal total equals the second-highest single-game total in conference history. He joins Samir Vejo of Western Washington, Bobby McAllister of Seattle University and Xan Nixon of Saint Martin's as the only players in GNAC history to score four or more goals in a single game. Vejo had a GNAC-record six against Colorado Christian and four against Northwest Nazarene in 2008. McAllister had four against Cal State Bakersfield in 2002 and Nixon had four against NNU in 2008.

Week of Sept. 12-18: Dylan Gaydosh, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, So., Federal Way, WA – Stadium) earned an assist on the Saints' overtime goal in a 2-1 win over Montana State Billings and had a goal and an assist in a 3-2 overtime win over Northwest Nazarene. "He had a great week statistically and he also had a great week of working off the ball," SMU coach Rob Walker said. "He produces on the score sheet but he also does the small things as well."

Week of Sept. 19-25: Tyler Schultz, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-11, Sr., Scottsdale, AZ – Pinnacle) scored four of the Falcons' 10 goals in wins against Mary and Sioux Falls. He also assisted on a fifth goal increasing his career point total to 63. He needs just one more point to move into 10th place on the GNAC all-time career point list. He already ranks seventh in career goals with 28.

Week of Sept. 26-Oct. 2: Carlo Basso, Simon Fraser (F, 6-4, So., Coquitlam, BC – Archbishop Carney) scored three goals including the game-winner in a 5-0 shutout at Saint Martin's and the first two goals in a 4-3 home victory against Seattle Pacific. "Carlo was fantastic," SFU coach Alan Koch said. "He scored a very composed goal to get us going at Saint Martin's and helped settle us down with a rocket against Seattle Pacific. He works tirelessly for the team and is fully deserving of the three goals he scored this week."

Week of Oct. 3-9: Chris Bargholz, Simon Fraser (M, 5-8, Fr., Fuessen, Germany) and Isaac Kerr, MSU Billings (D, 6-4, Fr., Coynton, Scotland). . Bargholz scored three goals, including a pair of game-winners as Simon Fraser outscored PacWest foes BYU-Hawaii and Hawaii Pacific, who have a combined record of 15-5-1, by a 9-2 margin. "Chris turned in a fantastic performances Saturday (scoring twice against Hawaii Pacific). His first goal was a sublime chip over their goalkeeper. He is improving almost daily and becoming more and more comfortable with college soccer in every match." . Kerr also had two game-winners in a 1-0 victory over Mary and a 3-2 overtime win against Sioux Falls. "I thought Isaac was absolutely fantastic for us this weekend," said MSUB head coach Dan McNally. "This season he has continued to improve as a defender and this weekend he came up clutch with two big goals."

Week of Oct. 10-16: Jon Pearman, Seattle Pacific (D, 6-2, Jr., Glendale, AZ - Cactus) has spearhead a defense that has posted four consecutive shutouts to put the Falcons right in the middle in the hunt for one of the four available NCAA Division II post-season berths. Last week, SPU allowed just 10 shots in a scoreless draw with Montana State Billings and a 2-0 win at Northwest Nazarene. Spearman had an assist on SPU's second goal in the latter contest. "Jon has developed into the leader of our back line and does a great job of keeping us organized," SPU coach Mark Collings said. "He's done a tremendous job of winning balls in the box and his distribution this past week was very good. Furthermore his assist at NNU was a much needed boost for our attack."

Week of Oct. 17-23: Tyler Schultz, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-11, Sr., Scottsdale, AZ) had a pair of multi-goal games, his second and third of the season, in 5-0 and 3-0 wins against the University of Mary and Saint Martin's, respectively. He had two goals in each game and also added an assist against the Marauders to increase his season point total to a GNAC-leading 29. Schultz also leads the conference in goals scored (13) and game-winning goals (6). On the all-time GNAC career lists, he ranks third in game-winning goals (13), fourth in goals (35) and fifth in points (78).

Week of Oct. 24-30: Matt Besuchko, Simon Fraser (M, 5-10, So., Port Moody, BC) scored the game-winning goal on a header in the 74 th minute in Thursday's 2-1 win against Seattle Pacific and also was a force on defense in that game and in Saturday's 5-0 shutout of Saint Martin's as the Clan wrapped up their second consecutive GNAC championship. "Matt was a pillar of strength at SPU and helped prevent the Falcons from creating too many dangerous opportunities," SFU coach Alan Koch said. "He then came forward on a set-piece to score the game winner. On Saturday, he was back to his usual defensive best against Saint Martin's. He was been an incredibly consistent performer all season long and has been a big part of us winning the conference championship again this season."

Week of Oct. 31-Nov. 6: Thomas Chameraud, MSU Billings (M, 6-0, Jr., Poitiers, France) had a pair of assists, including one on the game-winning goal in MSUB's 3-2 win against Rocky Mountain. The Yellowjackets finished their season with a .500 record at 8-8-2 going 6-1-2 in their final nine contests. Chameraud end the season tied for fourth in the conference in assists with seven
