Commissioners

Richard Hannan (2001-2012)

Richard R. Hannan, who has been involved in intercollegiate athletics for more than four decades, is completing his 11th and final season as the Commissioner of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference.

Hannan announced his retirement this past summer and will be replaced by Dave Haglund on Jan. 9.

During his tenure, the conference has developed into one of the most outstanding NCAA Division II conferences in the country earning 56 Top 10 national finishes, including three this fall in cross country.

Among his many accomplishments was working with Fox Sports Northwest (now ROOT Sports) to televise nine basketball games during the 2010-11 season. ROOT is televising three games this winter, including both the men's and women's conference championship games.

He also worked successfully with the NCAA to bring the 2011 and 2013 NCAA Division II national cross country championship meets to Spokane.

Prior to taking over as commissioner, Hannan, a native of Spokane, Wash., served as interim athletic director at Lewis-Clark State College. He was also was the athletic director and head basketball coach at LCSC between 1974 and 1989, has also been an athletic director at two NCAA Division I schools.

Hannan, who earned a BA degree in social science in 1963 at Eastern Washington University, coached basketball at Columbia Basin College for seven years (1967-74) before beginning his first term at LCSC.

While substantially increasing the revenue production of the athletic department during his tenure the success of the national baseball tournament and the revenue it produced was one of the many highlights of his career at LCSC.

Hannan was appointed the athletic director at Weber State University in Ogden, Utah, in 1989. Three years later he was appointed to the same position at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas, before returning to the Northwest.

During his tenure at Weber State, he implemented a student advisory board and created an academic support system for student-athletes. He also balanced the athletic department budget in spite of an $183,000 revenue shortfall and developed coaches television shows.

At Southwest Texas State, Hannan was responsible for creating and developing the schools' first athletics endowment fund, doubling revenue production for the athletic department.

Hannan, who earned a master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from Eastern Washington in 1967, is a member of the NAIA Hall-of-Fame and the NWAACC Hall-of-Fame.

Prior to coaching at the collegiate level, he taught and coached at North Central High School in Spokane between 1963 and 1967. Hannan and his wife, Nancy, have been married for 49 years. They have three adult children, Gregory, Molly (Akey) and Douglas, and four grandchildren.

Dave Haglund (2012-Current)

Dave Haglund, who has been the commissioner of the Pacific Northwest-based Cascade Collegiate Conference since 2007, has been appointed the new commissioner of the GNAC effective Jan. 9, 2012.

Haglund is currently in his 31st year in intercollegiate athletics (mostly at the NCAA Division I level).

"It is a tremendous honor to be selected as the commissioner of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference," said Haglund. "The GNAC is widely considered one of the premier conferences in NCAA Division II, and I am humbled for the opportunity to assume a leadership role with such an outstanding association.

"I fully embrace the core values championed by Division II, and look forward to partnering with our campus leaders, student-athletes and GNAC staff in building on the outstanding accomplishments achieved under the guidance of outgoing commissioner Richard Hannan."

During his tenure with the Cascade Collegiate Conference, Haglund was responsible for all aspects of conference operations, including media relations, marketing, sponsorships, officiating, scheduling, rules and regulations, finances and enforcement.

Haglund spearheaded efforts to successfully land six NAIA national championships for the conference, including four in men's and women's cross country, and two in men's golf. His leadership resulted in more the $350,000 in sponsorships and gift-in-kind contributions for national championships hosted by the conference office.

Haglund also raised the profile of the CCC through marketing, media relations and sponsorship efforts, including the use of social media platforms and the development of a weekly podcast highlighting accomplishments by CCC student-athletes, coaches and administrators.

Prior to taking over as the commissioner of the CCC, Haglund spent 10 years on the senior-management team at the University of Maryland. He led Maryland's media relations department when the Terps won the NCAA Division I men's basketball championship and played in a BCS bowl game, and he supervised 12 sports and four support units. He also oversaw ACC and NCAA championship events hosted by the university.

Prior to joining the University of Maryland, Haglund spent 17 seasons in the sports information department at Fresno State University, including the last three as the director.

Haglund is a native of Portland and graduated from Oregon State University. He and his wife, Cindy, have two children, Samantha (18) and Matthew (15).

ABOUT THE GNAC

The Great Northwest Athletic Conference, which is comprised of 10 schools located in five U.S. states and one Canadian province, has established itself as one of the top NCAA Division II conferences during its brief 11-year history.

The conference, which was officially founded on July 1, 2001, includes four schools in the state of Washington - Central Washington University, Saint Martin's University, Seattle Pacific University and Western Washington University.

The GNAC also includes the University of Alaska Anchorage, the University of Alaska Fairbanks, Montana State University Billings, Northwest Nazarene University (Idaho), Western Oregon University and Simon Fraser University (British Columbia).

Humboldt State University (Calif.) and Seattle University were charter members of the conference but left following the 2005-06 and 2007-08 seasons, respectively.

MSU Billings joined the GNAC on July 1, 2007. Simon Fraser, which began play in the GNAC last year, is the first Canadian institution to be granted NCAA and GNAC membership.

The GNAC sponsors championships in eight men's and eight women's sports, including football, volleyball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's golf, softball, men's and women's indoor track-and-field and men's and women's outdoor track-and-field. Humboldt State and Dixie State are affiliate members of the GNAC for football.

GNAC teams have earned 56 national Top 10 finishes (through Dec., 2011) including seven in men's basketball and nine in women's basketball. Seattle Pacific reached the women's national championship game in 2005. Five other GNAC teams have advanced to the NCAA semifinals.

NCAA Division II West Regional

Eight men's and eight women's teams from each of the eight NCAA regions qualify for the 64-team NCAA Division II national tournaments.

Automatic berths are awarded to conference champions. The GNAC and CCAA hold post-season tournaments to determine their automatic qualifiers. The PacWest determines its qualifiers based on regular-season play.

The regionals will begin on Friday, Mar. 9 with four quarterfinal games. The semifinals are slated for Saturday, Mar. 10 and the championship games will be played on Monday, Mar. 13.

The first of three weekly poll to determine the five at-large teams that will join the GNAC, PacWest and CCAA championships in the eight-team field will be released Feb. 15.

The regionals will be hosted by one of the qualifying teams, usually the No. 1 ranked team in the final poll.

The men's regional will be pushed back one day and be played on Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday if Seattle Pacific, Northwest Nazarene and BYU-Hawaii (which can not play on Sunday) are not among the qualifying teams.

NCAA Division II Elite Eight

The eight regional champions advance to the Elite Eight. The men's Elite Eight will be hosted by Northern Kentucky Mar. 21-24 at the Bank of Kentucky Center in Highland Heights, Kent.

The women's Elite Eight will also be Mar. 20-23 at the Bill Greehey Arena in San Antonio, Tex. St. Mary's, Tex., is the host school.
