CSUSB’s Chafeh Selected NCAA Division II West Region Player-of-the-Year

SPOKANE, WA – Outside hitter Jane Chafeh of Cal State San Bernardino has been selected the NCAA Division II Daktronics West Region Volleyball Player-of-the-Year.

Chafeh, who led the Coyotes to the West Region title last weekend, was joined on the first team by middle hitter Samantha Middleborn, also of Cal State San Bernardino along with five other players from five different schools.

Other first team selections included Alaska Anchorage setter Calli Scott, UC San Diego libero Roxanne Brunsting, middle hitter Fabiane Seben of Hawaii Hilo and outside hitters Devon Crotteau of Montana State Billings and Makenzie Snyder of Chico State.

Seben was the only player to previously be honored by Daktronics. She was a first team selection in 2007 and was a second team pick in 2008.

Alaska Anchorage and UC San Diego led the second team selections with two each. UAA outside hitter Jackie Matthisen and middle hitter Cortney Lundberg and UCSD outside hitter Sylvia Schmidt and setter Elaine Chen were among seven players named to the second unit.

Also voted to the second team by the West Region’s sports information directors were outside hitter Gillian Heydorff of Chico State, middle hitter Tanza Buroker of BYU-Hawaii and libero Brandie Vea of Central Washington.

Players selected to the region first team will be listed on the Daktronics All-American national ballot. The All-American team will be announced Dec. 4.
