Fifty-Two Named to GNAC Academic Basketball Teams

SPOKANE, Wash. - A total of 52 student-athletes, including 32 women and 20 men, have been named to the 2011-12 Great Northwest Athletic Conference Basketball Academic all-conference team.

Among the women, Emily Lashua of Saint Martin's has the top GPA in the American grading system with a 3.98 average. In the Canadian system, which awards 4.33 points for an A+, Anna Carolsfeld of Simon Fraser has the best GPA with a 4.11 mark.

Among the men, the top GPAs are by Zachary Frehlick of Simon Fraser (4.15) and Liam Gibcus of Alaska Anchorage (3.84).

Saint Martin's and Seattle Pacific placed the most players on the academic teams with a total of nine each. Alaska Anchorage earned eight slots. Alaska Anchorage placed five players on the men's team to lead the way. Seattle Pacific, with six, earned the most slots on the women's team.

Nine players – three men and six women – made the team for the third year in a row. A total of 18 players – eight men and 10 women – earned their second academic all-conference selection.

To be eligible for the academic team, student-athletes must earn a letter, have a minimum grade point average of 3.20 and be completing at least their second year of eligibility at their university.
